For many years Mike has been a journalist and is renowned for his many 'tongue in cheek' articles. He is also very involved as an advisor at many shows and auctions where older motorcycles are concerned.

He was very involved with off road sport, riding in trials and scrambles for James, Francis Barnett, Greeves and AJS, nearly every weekend between 1954 and 1969. He also did some desert racing for AJS in the USA between 1970 and 1972. Mike says he has had the occasional blast since that time. He is somewhat renowned for having a go on the biggest bikes which various riders have brought on different Club Runs
